PRESSING CASE AGAINST MANN

Collier Would Put Town Topics Editor In Sing Sing.

TO TRY EVERY MEANS

Perjury Charge Fails Will Press "Blackmailing"—Plan to Remove Judge Deuel by District Attorney Jerome.

New York, Jan. 30.—Unless District Attorney Jerome changes his mind, he will apply to the appellate division of the supreme court for the removal of Justice Joseph M. Deuel from the bench of the court of special sessions. Mr. Jerome has made known this intention to several associates with him in the investigation of Town Topics, the "Society Journal," edited by Col. William D. Alton Mann and censured by Justice Deuel.

There will be no criminal action against Deuel, unless, again, the district attorney sees a new light. The present plan of the prosecution is to all he can toward the conviction of Col. Mann on the perjury complaint made by Robert J. Collier, editor of Collier's Weekly. The colonel was arrested Saturday night. The intention of Mr. Collier is to confine his attention toward Mr. Mann, without making a special effort to enlist Mr. Jerome's aid in taking steps against Deuel. In case the perjury charge does not bring a conviction, the publisher is ready to make further complaints against the colonel. It was stated authoritatively yesterday by one of his friends that he would be prepared, in the event of an acquittal, to have Col. Mann arrested for blackmailing; and that, if the second accusation should prove fruitless, he would swear out warrants against the editor on still other grounds.

In short, the proprietors of Collier's Weekly, it can be stated on authority, will not leave a stone unturned to put Col. Mann in prison, and while they are trying to do this, although they have expressed themselves as regarding Justice Deuel in the light of an entirely guilty party to the operations of Town Topics, they are willing to cease their attacks upon the latter and to be content with the district attorney's effort to oust him from the bench.

In the district attorney's office, yesterday morning, James W. Osborne and Mr. Collier met Assistant District Attorney Hart, whom Mr. Jerome had delegated to look after the matter in his absence. They were joined by A. E. Osborne of Rochester and Col. Hay of Washington, handwriting experts, who were called to New York to give their opinions upon the handwriting on which the perjury charge is based. The letters "G. W. D. M." appearing on a letter written by Count Ignatius Ward to M. Ellis Wooster, the "Fads and Fancies" solicitor, caused the complaint. Col. Mann testified during the Hayswood trial last week that he did not write the indorsement. Wooster testified that he saw the colonel write it. Charles S. Wayne, ex-managing editor of Town Topics, said that the handwriting was that of Col. Mann.

When the conference was over neither Mr. Osborne, Mr. Collier nor Mr. Hart would say what they had been talking about, but it was learned that their conversation had related to the perjury action against Mann.

The appearance of a young man from Mr. Osborne's law office before Magistrate Walsh, in the Tombs police court, earlier in the day, requesting a dozen blank subpoenas for use in serving witnesses for a "John Doe" proceeding, caused a rumor that such a proceeding was about to be instituted against Col. Mann. This, however, was denied.

The next step in the perjury case, it was said, would be Thursday afternoon's hearing before Magistrate McAvoy. The magistrate probably will turn the complaint over to the grand jury.

HOUSE ASKS ABOUT R. R. TRUST

Calls for Facts On Report of P. R. R. Combination.

PRESIDENT QUESTIONED

Representative Gillespie's Resolution Carried With It the Republican Support—Gets Opposition Mapping.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The friends of the Pennsylvania railroad on the floor of the House of Representatives were caught napping yesterday afternoon when Representative Gillespie of Texas opened his fight on the railroad combination for which the Pennsylvania is supposed to stand.

He called up for immediate consideration, as a privileged matter, his resolution calling on the president to inform the House what information, if any, he has to the effect that the Pennsylvania, the Norfolk & Western, Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake & Ohio, the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington and the Northern Central are a combination in restraint of trade.

Without a debate the resolution was adopted. It was then that Representative Dalzell of Pennsylvania realized the character of the resolution which had been adopted, and he immediately moved that the vote be reconsidered, explaining that the resolution of inquiry should be directed to the interstate commerce commission, and not to the president. Gillespie moved to lay Dalzell's motion on the table, and on this a ye and nay vote was ordered.

Mr. Dalzell was deserted by a big number of leading Republicans, who supported the Gillespie motion, which was adopted by a vote of 122 to 95, the announcement of the vote being received with applause.

The Gillespie resolution was introduced in the House soon after the Pennsylvania's anti-pass order was made public and the votes of some of the members are being attributed to their resentment against this order. It is believed that the president will send the House all the information on the subject of the alleged combination which may be in the possession of the interstate commerce commission.

THREE DEAD IN COLLISION.

MIDDY REEFED SAIL.

'Twas on Top of a Clothes Locker, He Tells Judges at Trial.

Annapolis, Jan. 30.—At the trial of Midshipman Melvin yesterday the accused cadet entered a plea of not guilty.

The prosecution called Fourth Class Man Theodore H. Winters to the stand. He said that early in December Melvin had come to his room and put him on his head because he had looked at him. He said that he had gone on his head from ten to twenty times, and was laughing all the time.

Midshipman Sloan said that he had seen Winters stand on his head at the order of the accused.

—a witness explained his failure to see all that was going on by the fact that he was on top of the clothes locker "reefed sail." He said that Melvin had stood him on his head and made him do the "walk" a few times.

RICKERT & WELLS' TEST

Sold Hyomei for Years and Know It Will Cure Cataract.

Rickert & Wells have given Hyomei a most thorough and remarkable test. For a long time they have offered to refund the money to any purchaser of Hyomei, if it failed to benefit.

The remedy has made so many cures among their customers that they have urged its use in the most chronic cases of cataract.

Breathed for a few minutes four times a day, through the inhaler that comes with every outfit, it soothes the irritated mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs, kills the cataractal germs, and restores complete health. Its healing, antiseptic, liquefying properties to the most remote air passages as no medicine taken into the stomach can possibly do. Immediate relief almost always follows the use of Hyomei, and great benefit is seen after a few days' treatment.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the pocket or purse, and will last a lifetime, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. If this is not sufficient for a complete cure, additional bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents.

Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists, and remember, too, if Hyomei does not cure, Rickert & Wells will return your money.

CZAR'S SECURITIES DROP.

Sensational Fall in Rouble Notes on the Berlin Bourse.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—Russian rouble notes scored a sensational drop yesterday of 1.15 to 212.75. Russian exchange also fell heavily, eight going down to 212.40, March to 210.50, and April to 209.50. These are the lowest figures reached since the present movement began. A number of causes are assigned for the decline. The principal one is the weakening of the Russian Imperial Bank's gold stock in comparison with its note circulation. A fact further referred to is that the latest issue of treasury notes was made a direct burden upon the bank's gold reserve at the option of holders.

As a more immediate cause it was alleged that the number of rich Russian refugees arriving in Germany daily is increasing. Driven out through the reactionary tendencies of the moment, these either bring rouble notes or offer St. Petersburg bills against their balances left there.

It was asserted on the Bourse yesterday that foreign markets, particularly London, are making large speculative sales here of long-time Russian bills.

OLD "REBS" AT WHITE HOUSE.

The veterans later went to the Capitol, and were conspicuous about the corridors and in the galleries, frequently swapping war stories with their Yankee friends. Other southern states were also represented by delegations of Gen. Wheeler's old troops.

150,000 MEN MAY STRIKE

New Move by Structural Steel Workers.

INVOLVE ALL LABOR BODIES

Are Using the Federated Union as a Lever—Making the Most of the Opposition to the Open Shop.

New York, Jan. 30.—A strike embracing 150,000 men and involving the entire building industry of New York is now being eagerly aimed at by the structural steel workers of the city. Such a desperate step is necessary, they say, in order to preserve their waning organization from complete ruin as a result of the strike in which they have been engaged for the past seven weeks. The delegates to the Poughkeepsie and Bridge-men's Union, which embraces the structural steel workers, requested the Central Federated Union Sunday to call a conference this week of all the unions in the building trades which are still at peace with their employers, to decide whether they will break those peaceful relations and ally themselves with the strikers.

Next Friday will decide the fate of the proposed great strike. On that day the organizations which are at work are to appear before the Central Federated Union and answer how they are to stand—whether for or against the strike. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is also to be pleaded to by the structural steel workers. The structural steel workers have been in hard luck ever since their leader, Samuel Parks, died. In the present strike, which involves the skyscrapers going up all over the city, they have nearly been overwhelmed, they say, by strike-breakers, by non-union men brought here from other cities. Back of it all is the question of the "open shop." The delegates of the structural steel workers warned the Central Federated Union Sunday, that if they were allowed to go down in the ruin, the employers in every other building trade would force the open shop on the men, thus involving all organized labor in one common ruin. It was in response to that threat that the Central Federated Union resolved to summon all its members to stand by the structural steel workers at all hazards.

The charge against the union and its members was violation of an injunction granted some weeks ago, by which the members of the union were enjoined from interfering with the operation of the printing establishments operated by members of the Chicago Typographical union who were employed in these establishments. In announcing his decision, Judge Holdom said:

"In this case it has not been a mere technical violation of the injunction, but a persistent one, and an order directed for the order of the court. If this court cannot be upheld, then government is a fraud and a sham."

Before the announcement of the decision, counsel for the union obtained leave to file an affidavit signed by 60 members of the union, which stated that they were opposed to violence in any form in connection with the strike.

SPARED A NEGRO.

Parents of Girl Assaulted Interceded for Him.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—Following a criminal assault on a 10-year-old girl by a negro, who was captured by a mob, the assailant's fate was in doubt for a while Sunday, while the parents of the girl pleaded against burning him at the stake.

Mrs. Roberts, the mother, weeping, begged that the law be allowed to take its course, and her husband continued to incite the mob to burn the negro. She then appealed to him to aid her in preventing the lynching. She said that to put the assailant to death within hearing of the girl would be almost as cruel to the child as the negro's act.

Roberts, after some hesitation, came to his wife's side and joined his entreaties with hers. Their united efforts convinced the mob that to lynch the negro would add to the wrong already done, and it was agreed to turn the assailant over to the sheriff.

Mable Roberts was attacked Saturday as she was returning from a neighbor's home by Rich Anderson, a negro employed by her father. Posses with blood hounds began a pursuit.

The negro was captured Sunday in a swamp and taken to Roberts' home, where it was planned to have him identified by the child, and then to lynch him. When the mob arrived at the Roberts home the negro confessed his guilt.

The "Rexall" Remedies are successful and this is why.

They were placed on the market three years ago. They have scored already the record of the greatest success ever known in the history of the drug business.

"Come and go" popularity may arise from any number of causes (hullabaloo advertising among them) and may or may not be founded on real worthiness. But the man, the plan, the idea, or the article that truly succeeds, does so because he or it deserves to succeed, and for no other reason.

The success of the "Rexall" Remedies is therefore the first evidence of their real merit. They sell because they cure, and they cure because each one of them is the best remedy known to medical science for the particular ailment it is made to relieve.

There are nearly 200 remedies sold under the "Rexall" name, each for one disease or one purpose. Each of these has been selected by a committee of experts from among all other remedies of its class, for manufacture and sale by The United Drug Company, a co-operative association of leading American druggists.

FOR CATARRH—MUCO-TONE

The chief ingredients of Muc-Tone are Glycerine, Celsa, Cascara Sagrada, Glycerine, and Sarsaparilla. Gentian is recognized in medicine as one of the greatest tonics ever discovered. It is the foundation on which Muc-Tone is built. Gentian combines in high degree the tonic powers of all the known "bitters," with none of the disadvantages applying to them.

Cubeba has long been recognized as a specific in the treatment of all catarrhal conditions. Its action is prompt and its benefit almost invariably. In whatever part of the body the inflamed or diseased condition of the mucous membrane exists, but the use of Cubeba has been recommended by the best physicians for many generations.

Cascara Sagrada is especially introduced for its necessary laxative properties.

The combination of these with Glycerine and Sarsaparilla makes Muc-Tone a remedy that attacks catarrh from every point, gradually restores and rebuilds the diseased tissues to their former health and strength, promotes digestion and creates a normal appetite. Bottle, 60c.

This "Rexall" Guarantee Appears on each page: "This preparation is guaranteed to give satisfaction. If it does not, come back and get your money. It belongs to you and we want you to have it."

GEN. WHEELER'S ROMANCE DURING WAR TIMES

Found Time to Steal Away from Camp to Visit Widow Sherrod, and Later Married Her.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 30.—The death of Gen. "Joe" Wheeler has recalled to the minds of a number of New Orleans people the romantic story of his courtship in Alabama. It was in the early years of the war. Gen. Wheeler has been carrying the federal troops near Chattanooga and had managed to cut off their supplies.

During part of this campaign he made his home on the Jones estate, in northern Alabama. There he met Mrs. Ella Sherrod, the daughter of Col. Jones, a well known steamboat man of antebellum days. Col. Jones was away at the war.

Mrs. Sherrod's husband had died, and she was left alone on the plantation with her crippled son and an invalid mother. Gen. Wheeler fell deeply in love, and often slipped away from his command to spend a few hours with Mrs. Sherrod, although the trips were made at the risk of his life.

Finally the federal troops burned every building on the plantation, and Mrs. Sherrod carried her mother from the burning house at midnight. Gen. Wheeler drove the federal troops completely out of the neighborhood. At the close of the war Mrs. Sherrod consented to become Mrs. Wheeler.

ABRUZZI'S NEW GOAL.

Intrepid Explorer Will Seek to Climb Mt. Ruvenzon.

New York, Jan. 30.—The World, in a copyright cable from Rome, says: The Duke of Abruzzi, who became famous because of his expedition to the North Pole, approaching nearer to the much-sought-for spot than any other explorer, has decided to attempt to reach the summit of Mt. Ruvenzon, the "African Caucasus," near the equator.

The height of the mountain is estimated at 30,000 feet, and the most daring climbers who ever attempted to reach its summit could not go further than 14,000 feet because of the inability of the natives to stand high altitudes. The Italian duke will provide himself with expert Swiss and Italian guides and porters, and expects to be able to attain the summit.

This mountain was discovered by Stanley when going to the relief of Emin Pasha.
